Other Activities

- ❖ "Earth without ozone is like a house without a roof. So it is our responsibility to take care of ozone layer from being eradicated completely. In support of this context, our college union had conducted a poster designing competition on 19th of September for spreading awareness about the dos and don'ts that can be followed to overcome the depletion in the ozone layer.
- ❖ The college union is much concerned about physical and mental health conditions of our students. So to encourage with physical activities, the union conducted a badminton competition for all the students on 27th of September. The budding players were brought to fame and showcased their core strength and dedication in the field of sports
- ❖ Gandhi Jayanthi was observed as cleaning day with the slogan "Swatch Bharat". On the 3rd of October, 2019 our students took an initiative of cleaning up a place called chavara kadavu. This gesture by our students bought a great sense of responsibility among the nearby citizens to keep up their surroundings clean and have healthy hygiene.
- ❖ On 11th October, 2019 we had a fun filled activity that brought out creative and brilliant minds with various emotions flowing in the heads of young generation. There was letter writing competition. It was held not in the traditional way of letter writing, but twisted with the concept of "a letter from one to one" were the best letters were later displayed on the notice board.

The various programmes organised in the college helped the young enthusiastic learners to become professional teachers. It helped the learners to become intellectually competent and emotionally matured personalities. Our union is a circle of strength and love. With every student our circle of love grows and very crisis faced together made the circle stronger. The union never walked ahead of any individual rather it stood by each individual. With the blessings of God Almighty and the heartfelt support of teachers and students, the union could undertake all the responsibilities vested in it successfully.
